

Marine Products

Security and Safety that Stays Ship Shape.

From docks to decks and boats to trailers, StanPro offers hundreds of Marine Products that provide safety and security in, out of and around the water. In the water, our customers rely on StanPro Marine Products to stand up to harsh weather conditions, corrosion, excessive wear and rough waters – both salt and fresh – while providing long-term protection and durability. And out of the water, our products are used in a variety of applications such as Trailer Cradle Pads, which protect items – like canoes, racing sculls and jet skis – in transit.

Applications:

- > Docks – Stationary and floating
- > Decks
- > Boats
- > Kayaks
- > Jet skis
- > Canoes
- > Transportation trailers
- > Bumper guards in parking lots
